A note of thanks... It was a real pleasure to join the happy band of "Flower Ladies" to help adorn St Mary's for Harvest. So thank-you ladies for your kindness and friendly welcome which made "a refugee from St P & E" feel so at home. Pam Morter.

A big thank you to Test & Eval via Colin & Judy McCarty for very kindly supplying me with a WebCam to help me improve and develop on-line ministry. They have both been very encouraging and supportive of this unexpected line of ministry, which as we know is growing across the country. Also positively encouraged by the bishops. This camera means I can try new things and I ask for your patience with this new development. I also ask for any suggestions or ideas you may have to grow the content. Next Sunday (All Saints' Day) it is again planned that the Service from St. Martins will be live-streamed. Please note on-line watchers that means the Service will be on-line from 10.45am and the service starting at 11am. The telephone line will also be available at the beginning of the service. Revd. Cheryl

Mothers' Union AGM. We have changed the date from the one printed in the 2020 Calendar (the first Friday of October) to Friday 30th October 2020, at 10am (to allow for the secretary to be present as it is half-term). This will be held at St Mary's. Thank you for continued support from all members, including the indoors ones as well as those who are able to make it to services and meetings. Ruth Kent

Services at St Agnes'. Please note: There will be a service of Holy Communion next Sunday, All Saints' Day, 1 November, 11.15 a.m. There will also be an Act of Remembrance (followed by Matins) on Remembrance Sunday 8 November, at 11 a.m. In December, there'll be Matins on Sunday 6 December, 11.15 a.m., and Holy Communion on Christmas Day, 11.15 a.m.

NB: Sunday 8am and Monday evening Communion services at St Mary's will not resume until further notice, nor any worship at St P & E's.

St Agnes' Annual Parochial Church Meeting will be held in St Agnes' parish hall on Thursday coming, 29 October, 10.30 a.m.

A message from Angela at the Food Bank. "The Food Bank is reasonably well stocked with food at present, although all donations are of course welcome. But no more pasta for a while please! Would folks kindly donate shampoo and shower gel suitable for both men and women, as stocks of these products are very low. Thank you."

Online worship: a message from the clergy. We'll continue to offer an online service as a principal Sunday service at 10am (opening up half an hour beforehand) for November. There'll also be a Wednesday evening service at 7pm. As usual, the telephone line will be open for all online services (accessed by dialling 03300 945 940 and using room number 24456910# and PIN 7760# when prompted), and service sheets plus Youtube link will be made available at <https://www.stmarysandstagnesnewmarket.org.uk/service-times/> for you to download.

COLLECT: Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them
that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

As the church's ministry continues and adapts during the COVID-19 challenge, your prayers are much appreciated by myself and all the clergy at this time. With our prayers and best wishes. Please do not hesitate to be in contact should you wish to speak with one or other of us: Revds John, Cheryl, Jeremy; also Canon Mark.
